

Advantages of Interventional Radiology

Offer your patients the least invasive option first, with an Interventional Radiologist as your partner in patient care. Interventional radiology treatments have become first-line care for a wide variety of conditions.

No other medical professional offers you multimodality state-of-the-art imaging and diagnostic expertise, coupled with an unparalleled clinical experience across specialties and in-depth knowledge of the least invasive treatments.

Our Interventional Radiology physicians are available for office consultations, inpatient consultations and on call after hours.

Common Interventional Radiology Treatments and Procedures

- Abscess Drainage
- Angiography: Arterial/Venous
- Arteriovenous Malformations
- Angioplasty
- Biliary Drainage and Stenting
- Cancer Treatment: Chemoembolization and Radiofrequency Ablation
- Central Venous Access
- Embolization
- Gastrostomy/Jejunostomy Tubes
- Genitourinary Procedures: Nephrostomy, Varicocele Embolization, Ureteral Stent or Embolization, Fallopian Tube Recanalization, Suprapubic Cystostomy, and Pelvic Congestion Syndrome
- Hemodialysis Access Maintenance
- Needle Biopsy
- Pain Management: Epidural Steroid Injections, Nerve Blocks, Facet Blocks, SI Joint Injections
- Stent Graft Repair of Aneurysms
- Stent: Stenosis/Obstruction
- Thrombolysis
- TIPS- Transjugular Intrahepatic Portosystemic Shunt
- Uterine Fibroid Embolization
- Varicose Vein Treatment: VNUS and EVLT Phlebectomy and Sclerotherapy
- Vena Cava Filter: Placement and Removal
- Vertebroplasty, Kyphoplasty and Sacroplasty

Diversified Vein
and Interventional Clinic

P.O. Box 632261
Littleton, CO 80163-2261
303.226.7225 office
303.226.7435 fax
24 hour Answering Service: 303.281.9088

Michael deGroot, M.D.

Vascular Interventional Radiology
Residency/Fellowship:
Stanford University Hospital; Stanford, CA.
Medical School:
University of Virginia
Member: Society of Interventional Radiology

Peder E. Horner, M.D.

Vascular Interventional Radiology
Residency/Fellowship:
Oregon Health and Science University
Dotter Interventional Institute, Portland, OR.
Medical School:
University of Kansas School of Medicine
Member: Society of Interventional Radiology

Dietrich W. L. Schultze, M.D.

Vascular Interventional Radiology
Residency/Fellowship:
Fletcher Allen Health Care; Burlington, VT
Medical School:
Northwestern University
Member: Society of Interventional Radiology

Michael J. Sassman, D.O.

Vascular Interventional Radiology
Residency/Fellowship:
Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center: Denver, CO.
Boston University Medical Center; Boston, MA.
Medical School:
Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine
Member: Society of Interventional Radiology